JP ALOE VERA GEL SPRAY

JP ALOE VERA GEL SPRAY is a sprayable gel.

The gel is made of the best quality of organic Aloe Vera (99.2% ACTIValue® with minimum 10% Acemannan). The gel from the plant regulates the local immune system, counteracts free radicals and thereby inhibits skin ageing.

JP ALOE VERA GEL SPRAY has excellent cooling and skin-supporting properties and is suitable for all age groups.

The gel from the plant regulates the local immune system, counteracts free radicals and thereby inhibits skin ageing.

It is easy to use on face and body, perfume free, organic and vegan.

Due to its regenerative and caring properties JP ALOE VERA GEL SPRAY is great as a serum under other skin care products.

The size of the bottle makes it easy to have at hand in the event of an accident. It's the perfect first aid in a beach bag, sports bag, saddle bag, nappy bag, toolbox, glove compartment, in the kitchen or just in your pocket.

Aloe vera works best if applied immediately.
